

Week of November 23

This week I have stories about turkeys and feeling thankful. There are fun activities to do at home too. I hope everyone has a wonderful Thanksgiving!

Enjoy!

Books for this week:

There Was An Old Lady Who Swallowed a Turkey
by Lucille Colandro

What did the old lady swallow? What did she make at the end?

Here are some suggested activities to do with your child this week.

Enjoy!

1. Look at old pictures together. Talk about who is in the pictures and what they are doing.
2. Draw pictures together. Talk about what your child is drawing and talk about what you are drawing. Maybe draw the people in your family.
3. Play Simon Says. Tell your child "Simon says touch your toes" and other directions (body parts are good to practice or movements such as jump, bear walk, etc...).
4. Play a color scavenger hunt! Give your child a color and have him/her find something in the house with that color (for example, "find something blue" and your child looks for an item in the house that is blue).
